A colorful illustration of a woman and a young girl walking on a path. The woman has short brown hair, wears glasses, a purple turtleneck, a black vest, and grey pants. She has a small brown bear in a basket on her back. The girl has red hair in pigtails, wears glasses, a red jacket, blue pants, and a light blue bag. They are walking past a pink car parked in front of an ice cream stand with a red and white striped awning. The stand has a sign that says 'Eis'. A large tree with green leaves is on the right, and a boy with a yellow hat is peeking out from behind it. In the background, there is a yellow building with windows and a potted plant. A speech bubble is in the upper left.
